Brevard Music Center Unveils a Vibrant 2024-25 Parker Concert Hall Series

Brevard, NC – Tuesday, August 27, 2024– The Brevard Music Center is proud to announce the 2024-25 Parker Concert Hall Series, a dynamic lineup that brings world-class music to the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains. This season, audiences will be treated to an eclectic mix of genres and performances that span from the rich traditions of bluegrass to the refined elegance of classical recitals.

In its 4th season, the Parker Concert Hall Series has quickly become a cornerstone of cultural life in the region, offering year-round access to performances by some of the most celebrated artists of our time. This year’s lineup includes the soulful bluegrass of the Kruger Brothers, the virtuosic guitar of Raphaël Feuillâtre, the spellbinding vocals of soprano Larisa Martínez, and the expressive piano mastery of Zlata Chochieva. These performances are a testament to the Brevard Music Center’s commitment to presenting diverse, high-caliber music that resonates with both long-time patrons and new audiences alike.

“The Parker Concert Hall Series is about bringing people together to experience the transformative power of live music,” said Jason Posnock, President & CEO of Brevard Music Center. “Each performance is curated to connect with our community, offering something truly special for every listener.”

About Brevard Music Center

MISSION: The Brevard Music Center, a summer institute and festival, teaches gifted young musicians to prepare and perform great musical works at a high artistic level.

Founded in 1936, the Brevard Music Center stands as one of the country's premier summer classical music training programs and festivals. This summer, the Brevard Music Center welcomed 1,000 gifted students from 45 countries, the most diverse and largest cohort yet. These students come to the Music Center from across the United States and around the world to study with distinguished faculty and renowned guest artists. Brevard's hallmark is the powerful sense of community that re-emerges each year as faculty and students present remarkable concerts and events to summer audiences.

About the Parker Concert Hall Series

Set in the Parker Concert Hall, this series was purposefully designed to provide the community with year-round access to world-class music, offering exceptional performances in an intimate venue that reflects the natural beauty and welcoming atmosphere of Brevard. Separate from the Brevard Music Center's summer festival, this Fall, Winter, and Spring series extends the opportunity to experience outstanding live music beyond the summer months. Now in its 4th season, the Parker Concert Hall Series continues to enrich the cultural landscape of the region.
